Birthday
Poem

Hooray for April Birthdays

April is full of tomfoolery,
Spring blooms, and rain showers;
It also has us cheering
"Happy birthday!" from the rafters.

Wonderful people were born this month,
Yes, so many we love dearly,
Like actress Debbie Reynolds
And children's author Beverly Cleary.

There's film legend Spencer Tracy,
Of Hollywood's Golden Age,
And Carol Burnett and Patti LuPone,
Both stars of screen and stage.

Presidents? April has them,
From James Buchanan to Monroe,
As well as Ulysses S. Grant
And Thomas Jefferson, you should know.

A female cabinet member?
Frances Perkins was the first.
And stop the presses for the birthday
Of William Randolph Hearst.

Can you roll an athlete, lawyer,
Performer, and author in one—
Not to mention political activist?
Yes! With April baby Paul Robeson.

We're grateful for Joseph Lister,
For sterile surgeries he did fight,
And the work put in at Kitty Hawk
By aviator Wilbur Wright.

But in this month of rebirth,
It's you we celebrate the most,
And so we raise our glasses
To offer you this birthday toast.
